FREE COLLEGE CAN HAPPEN TO YOU!

Number 1 University

Harvard

Well-Rounded vs. Angular

1. Academics
2. Community Service
3. Extra-curricular
4. Awards, achievements, honors
5. Test scores

PLAN FOR SUCCESS

- High School Notebook
- 4-Year Academic Plan/ 4-year Summer Plan
- Start test prep early

AP

College-level courses, taken in jr/sr years; tests in May; grades 1-5; receive college credit; demonstrates mastering of coursework; skip classes in college; homeschoolers can study on their own; watch internet course or get an outside AP teacher.

DUAL

Students enroll in high school and college simultaneously and earn credit for both. The credit may or may not transfer (sometimes used for honors class or internal placement). See info at www.collegetransfer.net & www.transfer.org. Taken in jr/sr years; fill out application; take an SAT/ACT; and the cost can vary from free to nominal.

CLEP

Earn college credit by taking qualified tests; corresponds to one-semester class; tests are 90 minutes long; fee for test and center; taken at any age; can take fewer classes, spend less money; use to finish a degree; too many college credits can nullify scholarships.

Important Test Score Info

Start preparing in 9th grade; Keep record of improvement; Take until desired score; Add best SAT scores to transcript (entrance, scholarships, credibility)

SAT vs. ACT

100% of all colleges take either one; both are for college entrance and scholarships. SAT is logic and ACT is content-based but if a college prefers one over the other, they convert the score (e.g. 1300 SAT = 29 ACT)

Important Transcript Info

Type it, two pages, specify course title, include best test scores, notate if state equivalent, add graduation date, sign and notarize
